MR. SPEAKER: On Monday, January 25, 1988, I moved to recall House Bill No. 550 from the Committee on Transportation and withdraw it from the House. I have been advised by the Clerk's office that this was an incorrect motion. Therefore, I would request that I be permitted to withdraw that motion, which motion prevailed.

Pursuant to an earlier ruling of the Chair, the Clerk advises me that the correct motion, which I now make, pursuant to House Rule No. 53, is to move to recall Senate Bill 104, having been earlier substituted for House Bill No. 550, from the Committee on Transportation.
